West Virginia is now a Second Amendment Sanctuary State!

Dear B.,

I have fantastic news to share!

West Virginia just became a Second Amendment sanctuary state!

Thanks to your help and persistence, the Second Amendment Sanctuary bill (HB 2694) -- sponsored by Rep. Brandon Steele -- was signed and enacted by Governor Justice.

This means state and local government officials will be under order to NOT enforce (or assist in federal enforcement of) ANY federal bans or regulation on firearms, magazines, ammunition, or firearm accessories. This will make it significantly less likely for Biden’s gun control to be enforced.

GOA believes it is important for you to know where your legislators stand, so according to the West Virginia Legislature Website, here is how your legislators voted:
